

Gail Posner

FINE ART

Gail's work is exhibited at local venues in Evergreen, at Mission Trace Framing in Lakewood Colorado, and through her studio. The Posner Studio is located in her home in Evergreen where she has resided for forty years. Gail was a member of Shadow Mountain Gallery co-op in Evergreen for eight years, and a member of Colorado Mountain Gallery in Georgetown for two years. She has participated in numerous regional shows through the co-ops and art organizations.

Gail was co-president and executive member on the board for Shadow Mountain Gallery for two years and was program coordinator for the Eastern Slope Pastel Society for three years. In 2011, Gail chaired the Pastel Society's Annual Member's Show in Longmont.

In 2011 Gail had the opportunity to join a group of artists called the Alliance Artists of Evergreen. The group has participated in local venues and shows throughout Evergreen, Golden, and Denver in theaters, wineries and neighborhood art walks.
